

IN THE NAME OF GOD

Policy

Faradanesh Inspection Company inspects all kinds of material under supervision and certificate of ISIRI (Institute of Standard & Industrial Research of Iran).

We do our best in every aspects in reaching full industrial independence, reducing currency and easier ways of importing and exporting high quality materials.

Regarding bellow items we have chosen our policy based on our good comprehension of our costumers real needs and requirements, professionalism, working with relevant national and international standards, taking in account all rules and regulation of the law with independency and keeping our customers information secret.

- Giving customer services with best quality, best price and keeping customers satisfied.
- Making big efforts to give services with no error non what so ever.
- Expansion of our services.
- Increasing the level of education, professionalism of the staff and getting better result from them, supplying them with best equipment also having options and programs for staff replacements.
- Increasing the expectations of the authorities.

The whole quality management system of the company is designed based on ISO9001:2015, ISO-IEC 17020:2012 by continuously stimulating and team work.

Applying this system is all the managers, staff and most definitely my responsibility.

In this regards quality manager will supervise and help me to constantly apply this system and makes sure we are not miss led.

This document is declared in different ways, it will be reviewed in correct periods of time, and will be comprehended and applied by all staffs.

Manger Dictor

Seyed Ali Ziaee